

2022 – 23 Webinar Programme:

Part of the Innovation, Digital and Transformation Directorate webinar series

To sign up for any of these virtual events please register by the relevant link provided. You can see the latest programme and past event slides and recordings on our website

Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
NHS Knowledge for Healthcare – an introduction for trust leadership	“Applying knowledge into action is the currency of a successful healthcare organisation.” Today, knowledge services are an essential part of the decision-making structure of the NHS, as well as of the education and training structure. This insightful 15 minute introduction brings to life the business critical role that knowledge and library specialists, ensuring that decisions made, day by day, draw on the best 360° of evidence available.	Sue Lacey Bryant – Chief Knowledge Officer, HEE talks with Nick Poole , CEO, CILIP	Watch it now 10 mins
November
Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
Supporting the public with health choices: Easy read guides for all	Changes in the NHS are placing increasing emphasis on the ability of members of the public to participate in shared decision making. This session introduces two guides for healthcare practitioners, carers and third sector colleagues who support people with learning disabilities and autism. These were co-produced with people with lived experience of learning difficulties and autism	Ruth Carlyle – Head of Knowledge and Library Services, HEE and Sue Robertson , Library and Knowledge Services Development Lead, HEE	Wednesday 23 November 12:30 – 1.15pm 45 mins Sign up now!

	and will be of value more widely as easy read tools. The session demonstrates borough-level data in health literacy (the ability to access, assess and use health information) and digital access as part of targeting the use of the easy read tools.		Registration closes on Friday 18 November
December
Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
Your library is online: support for nurses and midwives from NHS knowledge and library services	The NHS Knowledge and Library Hub is here to help you quickly access the evidence you need. It can connect you with wide ranging resources specifically useful for nurses and midwives, during training, in practice and for professional development. It can also smooth your path to help from your local library team. Join Alan Fricker, Knowledge and Library Hub manager, to explore how to make the most of the full range of evidence support available to you. The Knowledge &amp; Library Hub is NHS funded so freely available to staff and trainees. There will be time for your questions after an initial walk through.		Tuesday 13 December  12:30 – 1.15pm  45 mins  Sign up now!  Registration closes on Friday 9 December
January
Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
Giving the Gift of Time to help healthcare teams improve patient outcomes and productivity	By tapping into the services offered by their local NHS knowledge and library teams, NHS organisations can realise significant value and benefits. These services can deliver a minimum economic benefit of £2.40, for every £1 invested.	Sue Lacey Bryant, Chief Knowledge Officer and Clare Edwards, Deputy Head of Knowledge and Library Services	Tuesday 24 January  12:30 – 1.15pm  45 mins

	This is by taking the heavy lifting out of putting evidence into practice and giving the gift of time.		Sign up now! Registration closes on Thursday 19 January
--	--	--	--

Past events archive:

September 2022
Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
BMJ Best Practice for Primary care – get the most out of the national clinical decision making tool	The benefits of BMJ Best Practice to clinicians and trainees in Primary Care. A webinar for place-based practitioners on how to get the most from BMJ Best Practice, in practice, on call and during study. You will need your OpenAthens account live in advance – Don't have an account?	Kieran Walsh , Clinical Director, BMJ Best Practice.	Registration Closed: Recording and slides on Website
Ensuring decisions are underpinned by evidence from research.	Healthcare is a knowledge intensive industry. No wonder the new Health and Care Act sets a legal duty for the NHS, and ICBs specifically, to facilitate the use of evidence from research. Helping you fulfil this responsibility, HEE is leading a transformative approach to mobilising knowledge, and placing evidence at the fingertips of clinical and operational NHS staff and learners.	Patrick Mitchell , Director of Innovation, Digital and Transformation, HEE and Sue Lacey Bryant – Chief Knowledge Officer, HEE	Registration CLOSED

October 2022
Topic	Summary	Presenting	Date and Time
Health disparities: using data and health literacy techniques to reduce inequalities	To address health disparities, we need to focus on improving health literacy, digital literacy and digital access. In this session you will find out about our newly available maps and online tool using, place-based geodata to identify levels of health literacy and digital access in your area. The session will also introduce resources and our health literacy elearning programme, and how to use these as part of a series of steps to address local health disparities.	Ruth Carlyle – Head of Knowledge and Library Services, HEE and Sue Robertson, Library and Knowledge Services Development Lead, HEE	Registration Closed:  Recording and slides on Website